First impressions count: On passing through the main entrance and vestibule, the eye is drawn through the spacious lobby towards the garden courtyard and a concierge represents the timeless elegance of PURE. Each apartment is an expression of a distinctive housing culture. Intelligent floor plans provide an optimal sense of space, carefully chosen materials and selected fittings ensure a stylistically confident appearance. The PURE condominiums with loggias, balconies and roof terraces, largely with views over the Spree and the East Side Gallery, lift the Berlin residential culture to a new level. The sophisticated architecture and the distinctive interior are expressions of a unique lifestyle. The majority of the apartments at PURE are intelligently designed 2-room apartments but also it offers a variety of apartments with 3, 4 and 5-rooms that fulfill each individual residential requirement. The underground parking featured with charging devices for electrical cars is a matter of course
